Recently the United States Tennis Association (USTA) created new standards for children 10 and under, in order to promote faster skill development. New features include softer balls, smaller court sizes, reduced net height, and moderated rules. The Association is aiming to promote an adaptive environment for the needs of the children.

- The Ed Perpetua Tennis Academy is promoting these new standards to further your child's existing abilities, by introducing a new Matchplay program which will help your child gain experience in competing against one another.
- Its our goal to facilitate your child for the future prospect of participating in USTA sanctioned Tournaments.
